WELCOME

Welcome to the 8th annual May-Way Farms Bull & Female sale! We want to start off by thanking you for taking the time to look through our offering and the interest in our program. There are a variety of pedigrees to choose from and genetics that will certainly work for a variety of environments and programs depending on specific goals for your personal operation.

We are thankful 2018 is behind us after bringing record drought last summer, but we are now facing one of the coldest, wettest winters we have been faced with in decades. Since the start of 2019, the weather has caused us to fall behind on our day to day activities and has made it a bit more challenging for spring calving (still asking myself why I chose to move up breeding spring cows three weeks ahead of normal). With the difficulties the weather has faced us, it has also been a challenge preparing for this sale. There were many bulls that should have been pictured and it just didn't work out. As always, the Fall bulls were pastured on fescue with protein supplement. The Spring bulls were drought weaned in September and after a little fall rain were kicked back out to grass to help preserve feed. Both sets of bulls were put on a high roughage diet while on pasture starting the week of Thanksgiving. Currently the bulls are still on pasture as we feel exercise is critically important for their development. We develop our bulls to be FIT not FAT.

We are offering six bred females from the heart of our program. They are daughters out of some of our most productive herd sires and breed prominent cow families. We hope to have pictures of them on our website the week of the sale.

As many of you know, we are a family ran cattle and row crop operation. I would like to thank my family and our 'hired hand', Todd Howard, for all they do and am grateful for their involvement. This farm and these cows are our life, and we are thankful to be a part of such a great industry.

We invite you to stop in any time prior to the sale to view the bulls and females. Videos on all lots will be available for viewing on our website, www.maywayfarms.com. Please do not hesitate to contact myself or any of the representatives listed with any questions you may have or assistance needed. We look forward to seeing you March 9th!

Thank you,

*Jason Flory
& family*

The Flory Family

Special Note >>>

This year we will be switching from a live auction to a video auction. Bulls will be on location for your evaluation at our temporary site until our sale facility is completed, so please make note of this new change in location. We want to thank Rob and Debbie Gloss at OLCC for all of their support the past 8 years and allowing us the use of their sale facilities.
